CITATION

ISDB PRIZE LAUREATE IN ISLAMIC BANKING FOR THE YEAR 1420H

Considering his pioneering efforts for establishment of Islamic commercial banks and financial institutions in a number of countries and his life-long services for the promotion of Islamic banking;

Recognizing his contributions towards the establishment of a number of research institutions for the development of the discipline on scientific lines;

Considering his enterprising role as a leading businessman of the Muslim world with a firm commitment to Islamic banking and investment activities;

Recognizing his contributions in holding a number of symposia, seminars and conferences as well as sponsoring intellectual and academic projects with a significant practical impact for the development of new financial instruments suitable for the contemporary transactions;

And in view of his sustained interest and support for the promotion of Islamic banking, physically, financially and intellectually;

The ISDB Prize Selection Committee unanimously decides to award the ISDB Prize in Islamic banking for the year 1416H to Sheikh Saleh Kamel of Saudi Arabia.